

ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH - 26 Sep 66

PRIVATE BURIAL SERVICES FOR LOUIS WERNER, II

A rosary was recited today for Louis Werner II, member of a prominent St. Louis family who was killed in an Idaho plane crash late Friday. The service was at the Arthur J. Donnelly undertaking establishment. Burial services were private.

Mr. Werner, 42 years old, lived on Shackelford road, Florissant. He was associated with his brother, Joseph G. Werner, as a private investment banker and continued in that capacity after he joined the Central Intelligence Agency in 1949 and became chief of the organization's St. Louis regional office. He and four companions were killed when a light plane, loaded with hunting gear, overshoot a small airstrip and hit a canyon wall about 24 miles north of Boise.

Surviving are his wife, the former Miss Anne Kennett Farrar Desloge; two sons, Louis G. and Peter D. Werner; two daughters, Miss Elise Werner II and Miss Anne D. Werner; his mother, Mrs. Joseph G. Werner; his brother and a sister, Mrs. Horace F. Henriques, Greenwich, Conn.
